BUCKS CARE

The Milwaukee Bucks are making community engagement a defining element of the path back to greatness. The Bucks ownership group has made philanthropy and charitable work a significant part of their lives, and knows that the Bucks will only be as strong as the community they serve. As the Bucks become a driving force behind the transformation and revitalization of Milwaukee, partnering with the community will be front and center.

The Bucks' commitment to the community took another step forward this offseason with the addition of Alicia Dupies to the team's management staff. Dupies brings over 20 years of experience in community affairs to the Bucks staff and will play an integral role in helping the organization launch its first ever charitable foundation.

All those involved in the organization understand that the Milwaukee Bucks are one of the most visible presences throughout greater Milwaukee and Wisconsin. Thanks to that visibility, the players, staff and owners are all united in continuing the traditions of charity and outreach that have defined the organization and will grow into the future. Last year alone, Bucks players, coaches and staff members spent over 500 hours giving back to their neighbors, while the organization made donations to over 2,000 charitable events in over 350 communities throughout the region.

The Bucks have participated in several long-term charitable partnerships with the MACC Fund, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Salvation Army, Special Olympics, Sam's Hope Literacy Foundation and Habitat for Humanity, amongst others, and have participated in a number of back-to-school events, community service days and literacy outreach events at local libraries.

For more information about the Bucks' involvement in the community, please visit bucks.com/community.

THE MACC FUND TRADITION

The MACC Fund (Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer) exists to support and fund childhood cancer and related blood disorder research. A pillar of support since its inception by Eddie Doucette and Jon McGlocklin during halftime of a Bucks game at the Milwaukee Arena on Dec. 10, 1976, the Milwaukee Bucks annually sponsor numerous fundraising opportunities for the MACC Fund. The Bucks have contributed more than $1.3 million for cancer and blood disorder research since the inaugural MACC Fund game in 1977, which became an annual event.

Since its inception in 1976, the MACC Fund has contributed more than $50 million to childhood cancer and related blood disorder research. For more information, please visit www.maccfund.org.

NBA CARES

NBA Cares is the league's global social responsibility program that builds on the NBA's mission of addressing important social issues. This season, as part of the 10th anniversary of its creation, NBA Cares is renewing its commitment to communities around the world by inspiring play and teaching basketball's values to more than 15 million youth, providing an additional 3 million hours of hands-on service to others, and leaving a lasting legacy in communities by building 1,000 more safe places to live, learn or play by 2025. NBA Cares works with internationally recognized youth-serving programs that support education, youth and family development, and health-related causes, including: Special Olympics, YMCA of the USA, Boys and Girls Clubs of America, UNICEF, the Make-A-Wish Foundation, Share Our Strength and GLSEN.

CHARITABLE DONATION & AUTOGRAPH POLICY

The Milwaukee Bucks assist thousands of charitable endeavors throughout the state of Wisconsin each year. All requests or proposals must be made online at least six weeks prior to the date of the event. The Bucks will not consider requests from organizations outside of the state, but will direct them to an NBA contact in their area. Requests are limited to one request per organization per calendar year and aim to support non-profit (501c3) groups. Please note that the Bucks do not take ownership of items to be signed and are not responsible for any unreturned or lost merchandise.

FRONT

OWNER

Wesley R. Edens is co-founder and co-chairman of Fortress Investment Group LLC. Fortress, founded in 1998, is a global investment manager with $72 billion of assets under management. Wes is primarily responsible for Fortress's private equity business, which invests in various industries including transportation, infrastructure, real estate, health care, financial services and media/entertainment. Under Wes' leadership, Fortress has helped shape the foundation of global investments and supports innovative transportation and infrastructure projects worldwide.

In addition to serving on a number of professional boards and commissions, Wes is a trustee and longtime supporter of the U.S. Ski and Snowboard Team Foundation and active philanthropist. He and his family established an endowed professorship at Macalester College in St. Paul, Minn., the Edens Professorship in Global Health, along with a research fund to focus on solving international infectious disease and environmental health hazards.

The son of a Sparta, Wis.-native mother, Wes grew up in rural Montana on a ranch where he first began participating in outdoor sports and living an active lifestyle. After ski racing and playing a wide range of sports as a child, he continues his active lifestyle today by mountain climbing, running and jumping horses. His interest in climbing has led Wes to scale challenging mountains around the world including the Matterhorn, the Grand Teton and Mount Kilimanjaro.

Wes and his wife Lynn have four children: Ryan, Madison, Mallory and Quentin. Ryan lives in New York and works in the sports industry. Their daughters, Madison and Mallory, are both attending college. Madison has a passion for science and recently was accepted to an accelerated medical school program. Mallory is a member of her university's cross country running team. Their youngest child, Quentin, is a junior in high school.

Wes received a B.S. in Finance from Oregon State University.

MARC LASRY
OWNER

Marc Lasry is the Co-Founder, CEO and Chairman of Avenue Capital Group, a global investment firm with over $13 billion of assets under management. Founded in 1995, Avenue has been a pioneer in the distress-debt market, successfully investing in debt and equity securities of struggling companies across a variety of industries.

Marc has said that his story personifies the American dream. Born in Morocco, he immigrated to the United States when he was 7 years old, with minimal financial resources. When he first attended Connecticut public schools, Marc did not speak a word of English, learning it through the news and reading his parents' encyclopedias. The son of a computer programmer and a schoolteacher, he would go on to win a basketball scholarship at Clark University, become a lawyer and hold a clerkship with a federal bankruptcy judge before entering finance.

Prior to founding Avenue, Marc co-founded Amroc Investments, LLC, and managed capital for Amroc Investments, L.P., the predecessor firm associated with Robert M. Bass Group, Inc. In addition, Marc was co-director of the Bankruptcy and Corporate Reorganization Department at Cowen & Company, and previously served as director of the Private Debt Department at Smith Vasiliou Management Company. Marc also held a clerkship for the Honorable Edward Ryan, former Chief Bankruptcy Judge of the Southern District of New York.

In addition to his business success, Marc and his wife Cathy have been extremely active in philanthropy. He and his wife established the chair in race relations at the University of Pennsylvania in the School of Arts and Sciences and have also served as joint chairs of the Penn Parent Leadership Committee. The couple also funded the construction of the Lasry Center for Bioscience and the Cohen-Lasry House, home to the Strassler Center for Holocaust and Genocide Studies, at their alma mater, Clark University. Marc is currently a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, and he also serves on the Board of Directors of The Clinton Global Initiative and the Board of the 92nd Street Y. He previously served as a member of the Board of Trustees of The Mount Sinai Medical Center.

Marc and his wife Cathy are the proud parents of five children. The couple also recently became grandparents. He received a B.A. in History from Clark University (1981) and a J.D. from New York Law School (1984).

JAMIE DINAN
OWNER

Jamie Dinan is the founder, chairman & CEO of York Capital Management, one of the world's most successful hedge funds. Jamie is a co-portfolio manager of York Multi-Strategy, York Credit Opportunities, York Event-Driven UCITS funds, and York Sub-Advised '40 Act Strategy, portfolio manager of the York Total Return funds, and the chair of the firm's Executive Committee.

The third of five children, Jamie was born in Baltimore to a textile engineer father and homemaker mother before later growing up in Worcester, Mass. Though money was tight in his youth, his parents focused their resources and efforts on providing education for their children. Jamie is a life-long basketball fan and has been following the Bucks since Oscar Robertson played for the team in the 1970s. He believes the team is well positioned under the leadership of coach Jason Kidd and looks forward to another successful season.

From 1985 to 1991, Jamie worked at Kellner, DiLeo & Co., where he became a general partner and was responsible for investing in risk arbitrage and special situation investments. From 1981 to 1983, he was a member of the investment banking group at Donaldson, Lufkin & Jenrette, Inc.

Jamie is currently the Chairman of the Board of Trustees at the Museum of the City of New York. Additionally, he serves on the board of directors for the United States Olympic and Paralympic Foundation, the Hospital for Special Surgery, the nation's pre-eminent orthopedic surgery hospital, and the Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts. He also sits on the Harvard Business School's Board of Dean's Advisors, the Board of Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania and The Wharton Board of Overseers at the University of Pennsylvania.

Jamie and his wife Elizabeth Miller are the parents of three children. He received a B.S. in Economics from The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and an M.B.A. from Harvard Business School.

PETER FEIGIN
PRESIDENT

Peter Feigin brings over two decades of dynamic corporate leadership to the Milwaukee Bucks, where he's charged with spearheading the next chapter of this storied team's legacy. Peter's experience cuts across a wide spectrum of business and entertainment corporations, from the NBA to private aviation, from digital media and motion pictures to theme parks. His talents are the key to helping realize the Bucks' transformational vision: a championship team playing in a state-of-the-art, multi-purpose facility that will drive the creation of new partnerships, new jobs and a new sense of community for the city of Milwaukee and the state of Wisconsin.

Peter's connection to the Bucks began leading up to the ownership change in the spring of 2014. As a senior advisor to the team, he helped re-organize the staff and re-focus the team's business operations. Since being named president prior to the 2014-15 season, Peter has been instrumental in driving growth across all categories of the Bucks' business. Under his leadership, the team saw increases in ticket sales, sponsorship and viewership. He has led the team's rebranding strategy and has played a critical role in helping the team secure the necessary funding to begin a development project that will transform downtown Milwaukee: the creation of a new world-class arena.

As the former Chief Marketing and Revenue Officer of Deluxe Entertainment Services Group, an international media corporation, Peter directed global business units and branding. Prior to joining Deluxe, Peter was the President and Chief Operating Officer of Marquis Jet Partners Inc. Peter was the driving force behind Berkshire Hathaway's NetJets acquisition of Marquis Jet in 2010 and played a central role in the integration of the two companies. After transitioning post-merger to the same responsibilities at NetJets, he led the company to significant revenue growth.

From 1998 to 2004, Peter worked for the New York Knicks in a variety of roles culminating in his position as Vice President of Marketing. During his tenure, he oversaw increases in profits, season subscriptions and suite revenue. From 1993 to 1998, he held sales and marketing positions with Six Flags Theme Parks which was then a Time Warner company. Peter has served on the Boards of Directors of The Leverage Agency, Arena Media and The Agency, and currently sits on the Board of Sakara Life.

He and his wife Natalia have two children, Alexandra and Thomas. Peter holds a bachelor's degree from Franklin and Marshall College and completed the University of Chicago Booth School of Business' Financial Executive Program.

JOHN HAMMOND
GENERAL MANAGER

Bucks General Manager John Hammond begins his eighth season with the club and brings more than 30 years of coaching and administrative experience in basketball to his post. The Zion, Ill., native was named to the position on April 11, 2008, and promptly generated an eight-win improvement in his first season and another 12 in his second, earning the 2009-10 NBA Executive of the Year Award.

Prior to joining the Bucks, Hammond spent seven seasons as the Vice President of Basketball Operations with the Detroit Pistons where he was responsible for directing day-to-day operations of the basketball operations department, handling player personnel issues and assisting in roster development. In his seven seasons in Detroit, the Pistons were 330-158 (.676 winning percentage) with one championship, another NBA Finals appearance and three other Eastern Conference Finals appearances. In addition to his time as VP of Basketball Operations with the Pistons, Hammond also served in the organization as Director of Player Personnel, Scouting Director and Assistant Coach in two stints with the team.

Hammond began his NBA career in 1989 as an assistant coach and scout with the Minnesota Timberwolves where he worked under current Milwaukee Bucks Director of Scouting Billy McKinney. From there he joined Larry Brown's staff with the Los Angeles Clippers, where they advanced to the postseason in 1992 and 1993. Hammond had another stint with the Clippers when he joined Alvin Gentry's staff as the lead assistant for the 2000-01 season. The team saw a 16-game improvement and Hammond was noted as a key in developing first-year players Darius Miles, Keyon Dooling and Quentin Richardson.

In all, Hammond has spent 24 seasons in the NBA, with his teams making 14 postseason appearances over that span.

Prior to his NBA career, Hammond spent six seasons at Southwest Missouri State where he helped lead the school to three consecutive NCAA Tournament berths (1986, 1987 and 1988) and an NIT invite in 1985. He also spent two seasons at Houston Baptist (1981-83), two at Nebraska (1979-81) and three seasons at the high school level in Nebraska.

A Greenville College (Illinois) graduate, Hammond earned his Bachelor's degree while lettering twice in basketball and serving as a student assistant coach.

Hammond and his wife Marsha have a daughter, Lauryn.

JASON KIDD
HEAD COACH

Jason Kidd was named the 14th head coach in Bucks franchise history on July 1, 2014, bringing a Hall-of-Fame resume compiled over a 19-year playing career to Milwaukee's bench. Kidd previously served as the head coach of the Brooklyn Nets during the 2013-14 season, where he became the first NBA coach in over 30 years to make an immediate transition from NBA player to head coach.

With Kidd at the helm in 2014-15, Milwaukee posted a 30-23 record before the All-Star break, becoming the first team in NBA history to double its previous season's win total before the mid-season classic. Despite battling through numerous injuries to players, Kidd helped transform the Bucks identity on the defensive end. Milwaukee finished the 2014-15 regular season second in the NBA with a 99.3 defensive rating according to NBA.com/Stats, after the team ranked 29th in that same statistic a year ago. He and his coaching staff added 26 wins to the Bucks' overall record from 2013-14 to 2014-15 to finish as the sixth seed in the Eastern Conference, the team's highest playoff seeding since 2009-10 (also sixth).

Over his NBA playing career, Kidd posted averages of 12.6 points, 8.7 assists, 6.3 rebounds and 1.93 steals in 1,391 games with Dallas, Phoenix, New Jersey and New York. On the League's all-time leaders lists he ranks second in assists (12,091) and steals (2,684), third in minutes (50,111), 3-point field goals (1,988) and triple-doubles (107), and sixth in games played (1,391).

Kidd's teams advanced to the postseason in 17 of his 19 years as a player, where he appeared in 158 playoff games and averaged 12.9 points, 8.0 assists, 6.7 rebounds and 1.91 steals. He was a member of the 2011 NBA Champion Dallas Mavericks, and also made two NBA Finals appearances with the New Jersey Nets in 2002 and 2003. Kidd is also a two-time Olympic Gold Medalist, leading Team USA in 2000 in Sydney and in 2008 in Beijing. Kidd owns a total of five gold medals in international competition and a 56-0 international record in Olympics, Olympic qualifying and exhibition games.

KIDD'S NBA HEAD COACHING RECORD

Year	Team	Record	%	Playoffs	%
2013-14	Brooklyn	44-38	.537	5-7	.417
2014-15	Milwaukee	41-41	.500	2-4	.333
Totals		85-79	.518	7-11	.389

The former number two pick of the 1994 NBA Draft out of the University of California and Co-Rookie of the Year (Grant Hill), Kidd is a 10-time NBA All-Star (1996, 1998, 2000-04, 2007-08, 2010), a five-time All-NBA First-Team selection (1999-02, 2004) and earned All-NBA Second Team honors in 2003. He was named to the NBA's All-Defensive First Team four times (1999, 2001, 2002, 2006) and Second Team five times (2000, 2003-05, 2007). Kidd is a two-time winner (2012 & 2013) of the NBA Sportsmanship Award (Joe Dumars Trophy) as voted by NBA players.

Early in his career, Kidd established The Jason Kidd Foundation, which is dedicated to improving youth education by ensuring that kids of all ages have the tools needed to succeed in life through mentoring, tutoring and technology programs. The foundation, founded in 1996, provides funding to children's medical research and other charities that support the needs and interests of children.

Kidd has five children: son T.J., twin daughters Miah and Jazelle, son Chance and daughter Noah. He and his wife, Porschla, were married in 2011.

BANGO

Mascot "Bango" has been entertaining Bucks fans for 38 years with his high-flying acrobatic dunks, daring stunts and funny antics. When Bango is not flipping around the BMO Harris Bradley Center he's busy making over 250 appearances in the Milwaukee community every year.

Bango is a former NBA mascot of the year and has the honor of being voted as the first "Most Awesome Mascot" by the Cartoon Network. During the 2013-14 season he was featured in an original documentary series on Hulu called "Behind the Mask."

Bango was a phrase coined by Eddie Doucette, the original "Voice of the Bucks," whenever a player connected on a long-range basket. When the club held a contest to name their new mascot, a few thousand entries were received, and the most popular by far was "Bango."

With the name in place, on Oct. 18, 1977, Bango was born. He made his debut during the Home Opener of the 1977-78 season as the Bucks battled the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar-led Los Angeles Lakers in the Milwaukee Arena.

AIR BANGO

Air Bango is known for his inflated ego. Whether he is dancing center court, racing through obstacles or startling fans, he is always pumped up and ready to entertain.

BANGO JR.

Since being introduced to Bucks fans in 2007, Bango Jr.'s role continues to grow as he tries to be just like dad. When it doesn't interfere with school, he enjoys performing at the BMO Harris Bradley Center, capturing the hearts of the crowd. If you are lucky enough to catch a high five from this little guy be sure to watch out as there might be a few other little Bango's learning the ropes behind him.

MILWAUKEE BUCKS DANCERS

The Milwaukee Bucks Dancers (MBD) are in their 26th year entertaining bucks fans and cheering on the team. They provide high energy performances at all Bucks home games and serve as ambassadors for the organization in the community. The members of MBD are beautiful, talented and intelligent women who have full-time careers or are full-time students, and share a passion for dance and entertaining a crowd.

BUCKS GRAND DANCERS

This talented group of dancers will be showcasing its moves for a 10th season and continues to be a fan favorite. With their unique style and outstanding personalities, this group of senior citizens delivers a crowd-pleasing performance every time they step on the court. You might not believe it unless you see it, so check out their jersey numbers to see the age of each team member.

YOUNG BUCKS

Now in their third season, this group of "Young Bucks" is sure to light up the court. Consisting of boys and girls ages 7-13, these kids really know how to put on a show. With their energetic spirit and eye catching moves, you won't want to miss a performance by these young stars.

RIM ROCKERS

These daredevils take to the sky at Bucks games with their innovative style and high flying trampoline dunking. The Rim Rockers' high-energy performances are geared to amaze and excite Bucks fans every time they set their flight schedule. With flips, 360s, crazy pass combinations and huge hang time, they have become a force in Bucks game night entertainment. The Rim Rockers have traveled all over the world, taking flight in England, Denmark, Mexico, Abu Dhabi, China and even center court at the NBA All-Star game. These two-time Guinness Book of World Record holders can also be found performing at colleges, high schools, festivals and charity events around the Milwaukee community.

HOOP TROOP

Hoop Troop is an interactive team ready to rally the crowd at a moment's notice and bring excitement and enthusiasm to Bucks games and events. They will greet you at the door as you enter the BMO Harris Bradley Center and entertain you in the stands. Make sure to keep your head up...you never know when they may toss a T-shirt your way.

BUCKS BEATS

This talented group of musicians brings the rhythm to the BMO Harris Bradley Center floor. With their loud and boisterous sound on the drums, Bucks Beats is ready to entertain the fans anywhere they can bring their drums. Whether it be on the concourse pregame, on the floor or even in the stands, Bucks Beats brings thunderous energy to the game.

*For more information on how to book any of the Bucks Entertainment Network performance groups for your event, call the Game Entertainment Department at 414-227-0597.

SEASON NOTES

- The Bucks had an unprecedented 26-win improvement from 2013-14 (15) to 2014-15 (41), including getting to 30 wins (30-23) by the All-Star break. According to the Elias Stats Bureau, Milwaukee became the first team in NBA history to double its win total from the previous season before the midseason classic.

- The 2015 NBA Playoffs marked the Bucks' 28th year of participation in the postseason as the No. 6 seed. It was only the ninth time in NBA history that a team went from having the worst record in the league one year to earning a playoff berth the next.

- Milwaukee ended the regular season ranked second in the league with a 99.3 defensive rating, behind only the eventual NBA Champion Golden State Warriors (98.2). In 2013-14, the team ranked 29th in defensive rating with a 108.9 mark.

- 2014 second-overall selection Jabari Parker started his career with two double-doubles in his first three career games, becoming the 14th player over the last 30 seasons to do so.

- Parker earned Eastern Conference Rookie of the Month for October/November after averaging 11.9 points, 6.1 rebounds, 1.7 assists and 1.33 steals through the months. He later suffered a season-ending left ACL injury on Dec. 15 at Phoenix.

- Milwaukee was represented at 2015 NBA All-Star Weekend in New York City by Giannis Antetokounmpo, who participated in the Sprite Slam Dunk contest and BBVA Compass Rising Stars Challenge, and Brandon Knight, who participated in the Taco Bell Skills Challenge.

HISTORY

THE BEGINNING

The National Basketball Association originally awarded the franchise to a group of investors based in Milwaukee - headed by Wesley D. Pavalon and Marvin L. Fishman - called Milwaukee Professional Sports and Services, Inc., on Jan. 22, 1968. Pavalon and Fishman were named president and executive vice president, respectively, as the franchise was incorporated on Feb. 5, 1968.

Original Bucks owners Wesley Pavalon and Marvin Fishman, along with members of the 1969-70 team Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Flynn Robinson and Guy Rodgers

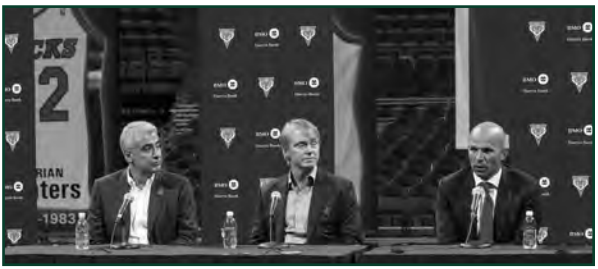

Larry Costello compiled a 410-264 (.608) record as the franchise's first head coach

An application from Milwaukee Pro was registered with the Wisconsin Department of Securities for the sale of 300,000 shares of common stock to Wisconsin residents at $5 per share. Because the issue caught public fancy, an additional 125,000 shares were offered when the stock opened on the over-the-counter market on April 24, 1968.

On the basketball side of the operation, the team went through both the college and expansion draft under the watchful eye of the team's first head coach, Larry Costello.

A Janesville, Wis., businessman, Jim Fitzgerald served as a member of the Board of Directors of Milwaukee Professional Sports and Services, Inc., beginning in 1973. He assumed his position as chairman of the board and president of the Bucks in November of 1976 and held that position until the sale of the franchise to Herb Kohl in the spring of 1985. Kohl's purchase ensured that the team would remain in Milwaukee, and he would go on to lead the team as president for 29 seasons.

THE FUTURE

Owners Marc Lasry and Wes Edens introduce future Hall-of-Famer Jason Kidd as the new head coach of the Milwaukee Bucks

April 16, 2014 marked the beginning of a new era for the NBA franchise as ownership was transferred from Senator Kohl to a new ownership group headed by entrepreneurs Marc Lasry and Wes Edens. Shortly thereafter, Jamie Dinan joined as a majority owner, and an impressive assemblage of Milwaukee community leaders also took an ownership stake to infuse the team and city with a new vitality driven by the promise of a next-generation team that remains true to the spirit of the "Brew City."

The 2014-15 season ushered in exciting additions including new head coach Jason Kidd, who came with a rich NBA pedigree and a reputation as one of the best point guards in league history. Under Kidd's leadership is a strong roster of future stars including two of the most dynamic, young players in the NBA. 2014 No. 2 draft pick Jabari Parker joins Giannis Antetokounmpo to create one of the most exciting teams in the NBA and the start of a new kind of Milwaukee Bucks basketball.

In addition to an exciting roster of talented players and a Hall of Fame coach, the future off the court is also bright. The organization is in the process of developing a new sports and entertainment complex to serve as the home for the next era of Bucks basketball. The state-of-the-art facility will become an important part of the revitalization of downtown Milwaukee and become integral to the community's economic future.

WHAT'S IN A NAME

May 22, 1968, was the day when Milwaukee's second professional basketball team finally got a name - the Milwaukee Bucks. More than 14,000 fans participated in a contest to name the team. Records show that R.D. Trebilcox of Whitefish Bay, Wis., was one of 45 people who suggested the name 'Bucks.' He saw bucks (male deer) as being spirited, good jumpers, fast and agile. For his efforts in helping Milwaukee's entry into the professional sports world gain an enduring nickname, Mr. Trebilcox won a new car.

FAMOUS FIRSTS IN BUCKS HISTORY

First Draft Choice

In the 1968 Draft, the Bucks selected Charlie Paulk of Northeastern University in the first round (seventh overall).

First Game

On Oct. 16, 1968, the Bucks hosted the Chicago Bulls, dropping an 89-84 decision in front of a Milwaukee Arena crowd of 8,467. Starting for the Bucks were Guy Rodgers, Jon McGlocklin, Fred Hetzel, Len Chappell and Wayne Embry. McGlocklin scored the first points in team history, draining a jump shot just 13 seconds into the contest. Rodgers led the Bucks with 16 points.

First Win

After dropping their first five games of the inaugural season, the Bucks claimed victory on Oct. 31, 1968, a 134-118 decision over the Detroit Pistons at the Arena. Wayne Embry led the Bucks in scoring with 30 points and became the first player in Bucks history to score 30-plus in a single game.

First NBA Championship

No expansion team in pro sports history earned a championship quicker than the Bucks, who captured the 1971 NBA title in just their third season of existence. The 1970-71 Bucks posted a 66-16 regular-season mark under Coach Larry Costello. In the postseason, they beat San Francisco (4-1) and the Los Angeles Lakers (4-1) before sweeping Baltimore in four straight for the title.

First Bradley Center Game

In front of a sellout crowd of 18,649 on Nov. 5, 1988, the Bucks dropped a 107-94 decision to the Atlanta Hawks. Terry Cummings led the Bucks with 19 points.

First Bradley Center Win

In their second home game in their new home, on Nov. 9, 1988, the Bucks topped Philadelphia 114-103 behind 31 points from Terry Cummings.

* Number retired

OSCAR ROBERTSON (1970-71 through 1973-74)

Number retired on Oct. 18, 1974

• Robertson retired from the NBA after leading Milwaukee to a 248-80 record in four seasons. The Bucks never won fewer than 59 games in a season during his tenure, and "The Big O" helped spur the team to two NBA Finals appearances, winning the Championship in 1971.

JUNIOR BRIDGEMAN (1975-76 through 1983-84, 1986-87)

Number retired on Jan. 17, 1988

• Bridgeman played more games than any player in Bucks history. He scored in double figures for eight straight seasons, consistently among the league's highest scoring non-starters, and was the league's top scoring sixth man in 1978-79 with 15.5 points per game.

SIDNEY MONCRIEF (1979-80 through 1988-89)

Number retired on Jan. 6, 1990

• Moncrief was a front man for a Bucks team that won 50 games for seven consecutive seasons and appeared in the playoffs in each of his 10 seasons (1979-89). A five-time All-Star, he compiled 16.7 points per game with Milwaukee, earned four straight berths on the NBA's All-Defensive First Team (1982-86), and was the first recipient of the NBA's Defensive Player of the Year honor in 1983.

BOB DANDRIDGE (1969-70 through 1976-77, 1981-82)

Number retired on Mar. 7, 2015

• Dandridge was not only named to the NBA All-Rookie First Team, and NBA All-Defensive First Team and All-NBA Second Team during his nine seasons with the Bucks, but he also helped lead the team to six postseason appearances with one NBA Championship in 1971. The four-time All-Star ranks first in Milwaukee history for minutes played.

JON MCGLOCKLIN (1968-69 through 1975-76)

Number retired on Dec. 10, 1976

• An original member of the Bucks, McGlocklin enjoyed eight seasons – and an NBA Championship – in Milwaukee. He was the leading scorer on the inaugural Bucks team (19.6 ppg) and became the first player to represent Milwaukee in an All-Star Game.

BOB LANIER (1979-80 through 1983-84)

Number retired on Dec. 4, 1984

• After playing five seasons in Milwaukee, Lanier ranks ninth on the Bucks postseason scoring list, tied for sixth in rebounding and tied for third in blocked shots. The Bucks won division championships in each of his seasons in Milwaukee, averaging 53 wins during those years.

BRIAN WINTERS (1975-76 through 1982-83)

Number retired on Oct. 28, 1983

• A two-time Bucks All-Star, in eight seasons Winters helped the team achieve six postseason berths. Upon retiring in 1983, Winters had the most assists in Bucks history (now 3rd), and he is among the Bucks all-time leaders in scoring, games played and steals.

KAREEM ABDUL-JABBAR (1969-70 through 1974-75)

Number retired on April 24, 1993

• Abdul-Jabbar earned Rookie of the Year honors in 1969-70, and the next season, he led the Bucks to 66 wins, won the first of three MVP awards with Milwaukee after averaging 31.7 ppg and 16.0 rpg, and to cap it off led the Bucks to their only NBA Championship. After six seasons in Milwaukee, Abdul-Jabbar was – and still is – the leading scorer and rebounder in team history, and also tops the all-time list in scoring average, field goals made, attempted and field goal percentage.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Charlie Paulk of Northeastern State (Okla.) was the Bucks first first-round pick in the 1968 Draft.
- On Oct. 16, 1968, before a crowd of 8,467 at the Milwaukee Arena, the Milwaukee Bucks made their NBA debut, an 89-84 loss to Chicago.
- Bucks set a home attendance record for a first-year team, averaging 6,246 fans at the Arena.
- Milwaukee's 27 wins were the second highest by an expansion team in NBA history.
- Flynn Robinson hit 21 free throws vs. Atlanta on Feb. 17, 1969, which remains a team record.
- Guard Jon McGlocklin led the team in scoring with a 19.6 average and was the Bucks first representative at the All-Star Game.
- The 1968-69 squad owns franchise records for most rebounds (4,727) and most FG attempts (8,258) in a season.
- On Dec. 11, 1968, the Bucks set a team record with 85 rebounds in a 106-96 win over San Francisco (at Madison).
- Bucks finished last in the Eastern Division to qualify for a coin flip (with Phoenix) to determine rights to top choice in the college draft. On March 19, 1969, NBA Commissioner Walter Kennedy flipped the coin; Phoenix chose heads, the coin came up tails. On April 2, 1969, the Bucks signed 7'2" Lew Alcindor (Kareem Abdul-Jabbar).

PLAYOFF RECORD:

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Bucks lineup bolstered by addition of rookies Kareem Abdul-Jabbar (first round) and Bob Dandridge (fourth round), both of whom earned 'All-Rookie' status.
- Abdul-Jabbar became an instant superstar, earning unanimous NBA Rookie of the Year honors and leading the Bucks to a 29-game improvement over the previous season. He finished as the league's second-leading scorer (28.8) and third-leading rebounder (14.5).
- Abdul-Jabbar set the franchise single-game record with 25 free throw attempts at Boston on March 8, 1970. He also set the season mark with 743 free throw attempts.
- Flynn Robinson set a team mark for FT% in a season (since broken) at .898, leading the NBA.
- Bucks established team records with 48 free throws and 62 attempts at Boston on March 8, 1970.
- On March 30, 1970, at Philadelphia, Bucks set club playoff records for points (156), field goals made (67) and assists (46).
- The Bucks made the playoffs in only their second season. Abdul-Jabbar set two Bucks single-game playoff marks with 46 points vs. Philadelphia (at Madison) on April 3, 1970, and 31 rebounds vs. New York on April 17, 1970.
- After the season, on April 21, 1970, the Bucks acquired All-Star guard Oscar Robertson from Cincinnati for Flynn Robinson and Charlie Paulk.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Beat Philadelphia, Division Semifinals, 4-1
- Lost to New York, Division Finals, 1-4

HONORS:

- Kareem Abdul-Jabbar – NBA All-Star Team, NBA All-Rookie Team, NBA All-Defensive Second Team, All-NBA Second Team, NBA Rookie of the Year
- Flynn Robinson – NBA All-Star Team

HIGHLIGHTS:

- In the first season of the NBA's four-division alignment, the Bucks ran away with the Midwest division, setting an NBA record (since broken) of 66 wins. The Bucks also set NBA records for home wins (34), road wins (28), field goal percentage (.509), field goals made (3,972) and assists (2,249).
- From Feb. 6-March 8, 1971, the Bucks won 20 straight games, an NBA record (since broken).
- Kareem Abdul-Jabbar was the league's MVP, leading the NBA in scoring with 31.7 ppg. He finished second in FG% (.577) and fourth in rebounds (16.0).
- Oscar Robertson, in his first season with the Bucks, dished a then-team-record 668 assists and was named an All-Star for the 11th consecutive year.
- On April 4, 1971, the Bucks beat San Francisco 136-86, marking their biggest playoff win.
- The Bucks dispatched San Francisco and Los Angeles in five games and blasted Baltimore in four straight for the NBA Championship, marking only the second time in league history that the title series ended in a sweep.
- In winning the World Championship in only their third season, the Bucks went further, faster, than any expansion team in the history of major professional sports.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Beat San Francisco, Conference Semifinals, 4-1
- Beat Los Angeles, Conference Finals, 4-1
- Beat Baltimore, NBA Championship Finals, 4-0

HONORS:

- Kareem Abdul-Jabbar – NBA Most Valuable Player, NBA All-Star Team, All-NBA Team, and All-Defensive Second Team
- Oscar Robertson – NBA All-Star Team and All-NBA Second Team

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Prior to the season, on August 18, 1972, Abdul-Jabbar signed a four-year contract extension.
- The Bucks became the first team in NBA history to post 60 or more wins in three consecutive seasons.
- Abdul-Jabbar set a team record with 24 field goals vs. Houston at Madison Jan. 25, 1973.
- Abdul-Jabbar finished the season ranked second in scoring (30.2 ppg) and fourth in rebounding (16.1 rpg). In late March, he scored the 10,000th point of his career in only his fourth NBA season.
- Bob Dandridge was named to his first NBA All-Star team, joining Abdul-Jabbar on the West squad.
- The Bucks set an NBA record with 14 consecutive wins to end the regular season.
- In the postseason, the Bucks were surprised by a deep Golden State team, 4-2, in the opening round.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Lost to Golden State, Conference Semifinals, 2-4

HONORS:

- Kareem Abdul-Jabbar – NBA All-Star Team and All-NBA Team

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Oscar Robertson signed a one-year contract to play in his 14th and final season.
- Lucius Allen tore cartilage in his knee in a game on March 15 at Detroit and was sidelined for the remainder of the season and the entire playoffs.
- Kareem Abdul-Jabbar blocked 10 shots in a game vs. Detroit on Nov. 3, 1973, and also set team records for defensive rebounds in a season (891) and blocked shots in a season (283).
- Abdul-Jabbar was named MVP for the third time in five seasons, averaging 27.0 ppg and 14.5 rpg.
- The Bucks led the league in point differential at +8.1 per game.
- The Bucks eliminated Los Angeles, 4-1, in the opening round and dispatched Chicago, 4-0, in the Conference Finals to return to the NBA Finals.
- Against Boston in the NBA Finals, the Bucks forced Game Seven with a double-overtime win in Boston, courtesy of an Abdul-Jabbar sky-hook from deep in the corner. In Game Seven, the host Bucks were defeated by the Celtics 102-87.
- Abdul-Jabbar set a Bucks playoff record for field goals made in a game (20, at Chicago, April 8, 1974), and Oscar Robertson set the Bucks mark for assists in a playoff game with 16 at L.A. on April 2, 1974.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Beat Los Angeles, Conference Semifinals, 4-1
- Beat Chicago, Conference Finals, 4-0
- Lost to Boston, NBA Championship Finals, 4-3

HONORS:

- Kareem Abdul-Jabbar – NBA Most Valuable Player, NBA All-Star Team, All-NBA Team and NBA All-Defensive Team
- Bob Dandridge – NBA All-Star Team

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Oscar Robertson announced his retirement on Sept. 3, 1974.
- Kareem Abdul-Jabbar suffered a broken hand during the preseason and was sidelined for the first 16 games of the season. The Bucks went 3-13 without their star.
- No player appeared in all 82 games for the Bucks.
- Jim Price was acquired in exchange for Lucius Allen on Nov. 9, 1974. Price earned an All-Star berth in his first season in Milwaukee, but a cartilage tear in his left knee ended his season after only 50 games.
- The Bucks had three players (Abdul-Jabbar, Price and Dandridge) on the All-Star team for the first time in club history.
- In falling just short of a playoff berth, the Bucks lost 18 games by five points or less.
- Abdul-Jabbar finished third in the NBA in scoring (30.0 ppg), fifth in rebounds (14.0 rpg) and first in blocks (3.26 bpg). Dandridge finished 18th in scoring with a 19.9 ppg average.
- After the season, on June 16, 1975, Abdul-Jabbar and Walt Wesley are dealt to the Los Angeles Lakers in exchange for Elmore Smith, Brian Winters, David Meyers, Junior Bridgeman and future considerations.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Did not qualify

HONORS:

- Kareem Abdul-Jabbar – NBA All-Star Team and All-Defensive Team
- Jim Price – NBA All-Star Team
- Bob Dandridge – NBA All-Star Team

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The four players acquired in exchange for Abdul-Jabbar combine for 50.0 ppg, led by 18.2 ppg from Brian Winters, who joined Bob Dandridge on the All-Star team.
- Dandridge became the first player other than Abdul-Jabbar since 1968-69 to lead the Bucks in scoring. Dandridge averaged 21.5 points per game (9th in NBA).
- Despite the sub-par record, the Bucks won the Midwest Division for the fifth time in eight seasons.
- Prior to the playoffs, Coach Larry Costello signed a new two-year pact.
- In the postseason, the Bucks were beaten in the First Round of the best-of-three playoff series 2-1 by Detroit.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Lost to Detroit, First Round, 1-2

HONORS:

- Bob Dandridge – NBA All-Star Team
- Brian Winters – NBA All-Star Team

HIGHLIGHTS:

- On Sept. 9, 1976, Don Nelson joined the Bucks as an assistant coach.
- That same month, the last original Milwaukee Buck, Jon McGlocklin, retired from the NBA as the Bucks third all-time leading scorer with 7,507 points (currently ranks 12th) in 595 games in a Milwaukee uniform. On Dec. 10, 1976, his #14 jersey was retired by the Bucks.
- A group headed by James F. Fitzgerald, William J. Blake and the J.P. Cullen and Son Corporation purchased 361,000 outstanding shares of Milwaukee Professional Sports and Services common stock. On Nov. 4, 1976, Fitzgerald was elected chairman of the board and president of Milwaukee Professional Sports and Services.
- Only 18 games into the season Larry Costello resigned as head coach after a 3-15 start and was replaced by Nelson.
- Bob Dandridge was the team's leading scorer once more, with 20.8 points per game.
- Swen Nater set the Bucks record for rebounds in a single game with 33 vs. Atlanta on Dec. 19, 1976. After the season, Nater was traded to Buffalo for the third overall pick in the 1977 Draft (Marques Johnson).
- Milwaukee hosted the NBA All-Star Game on Feb. 13, 1977. Julius Erving, with 30 points, was named MVP in the West's 125-124 win.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Prior to the season, on June 20, 1977, John Killilea, once a scout for the Bucks and more recently an assistant coach in Boston, was named assistant coach and assistant director of player personnel.
- The Bucks drafted three of the top 11 players in the 1977 Draft, adding Kent Benson, Marques Johnson and Ernie Grunfeld to a group that included veterans Junior Bridgeman, Quinn Buckner, Dave Meyers and Brian Winters.
- The Bucks set an all-time NBA record (later broken) by winning eight overtime games.
- The Bucks earned a playoff berth on the final day of the season when Seattle beat Golden State. Milwaukee swept the favored Suns 2-0 in the first round mini-series and took Denver to a tough seven games before succumbing.
- The Bucks set five team playoff records against Denver on April 23, 1978. – field goal percentage (.660), blocked shots (13), most points half (87), most points quarter (47, fourth quarter) and assists (46).

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Beat Phoenix, Conference First Round, 2-0
- Lost to Denver, Conference Semifinals, 3-4

HONORS:

- Brian Winters – NBA All-Star Team
- Quinn Buckner – NBA All-Defensive Second Team
- Marques Johnson – NBA All-Rookie Team

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Dave Meyers was lost for all 82 games of the regular season due to a back injury.
- Marques Johnson was named to the NBA All-Star Team, receiving more fan votes than any other player in the Western Conference. Johnson finished third in the NBA in scoring with a 25.6 average.
- Junior Bridgeman finished the season with a 15.5 average, tops among Sixth Men.
- The Bucks shattered the NBA assist record with 2,562 on the year for a 31.2 average (since broken).
- On Dec. 26, 1978 vs. Detroit, the Bucks set NBA records for assists in a game (53) and in a quarter (19). They also set a team record for margin of victory (59) in the 143-84 win.
- On March 14, 1979, vs. New Orleans, the Bucks scored 87 points in a half (a team record) and scored 158 points, a franchise-best for a non-overtime game.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Did not qualify

HONORS:

- Marques Johnson – NBA All-Star Team and All-NBA Team

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Bucks won their sixth Midwest Division title – and first since 1975-76.
- The 3-point line is introduced to the NBA game – Brian Winters hit 38 of the team's 50 treys.
- On Feb. 4, 1980, at the All-Star break, the Bucks dealt Kent Benson and a first round draft choice to Detroit for Bob Lanier. After Lanier's arrival, the team went 20-6.
- The Bucks played to 99.7 percent of capacity, selling out 39 of 41 games, including the final 38 contests.
- In the Conference Semifinals, an NBA-record crowd of 40,172 attended game five at the Kingdome, where the Bucks won 108-97. The Sonics ultimately won the series in seven games.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Lost to Seattle, Conference Semifinals, 3-4

HONORS:

- Marques Johnson – NBA All-Star Team and All-NBA Second Team
- Quinn Buckner – NBA All-Defensive Second Team
- Sidney Moncrief – NBA All-Rookie Second Team

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Following a divisional realignment, the Bucks began their first year in the Eastern Conference. The Bucks were paired in the Central Division with Atlanta, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit and Indiana.
- The Bucks finished with a 60-22 record to become the 19th team in the history of the NBA (and fourth Bucks team) to reach the magical 60-win plateau.
- Milwaukee became the 17th team in NBA history to lose no more than two games consecutively.
- The Bucks won 10 in a row early in the season and also set a franchise record with 11 straight road wins from Oct. 18-Nov. 23, 1980.
- Quinn Buckner broke the Bucks season mark for steals with 197 (since broken).
- The Bucks swatted 18 shots vs. Detroit on Nov. 12, 1980, to set a team record which still stands.
- The Bucks averaged 113.1 ppg, tops in the Eastern Conference.
- The Bucks set a team single-game playoff mark with 45 free throws at Philadelphia April 7, 1981.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Lost to Philadelphia, Conference Semifinals, 3-4

HONORS:

- Marques Johnson – NBA All-Star Team and All-NBA Second Team
- Quinn Buckner – NBA All-Defensive Second Team

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Bucks captured their third straight division title and second consecutive Central Division title. Milwaukee posted the largest season-ending division lead in the NBA (13 games).
- Milwaukee overcame an 18-game holdout by All-Star Marques Johnson at the start of the season and weathered the storm of 114 player games missed due to injury.
- Sidney Moncrief earned his first berth on the All-Star squad. Center Bob Lanier also made the All-Star squad.
- The Bucks scored a team record 166 points, including a team record 97 in the first half, vs. San Antonio March 6, 1982 in a classic 3-overtime thriller.
- Alton Lister tied the Bucks playoff mark for blocked shots in a game with 7 at Philadelphia May 5, 1982.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Lost to Philadelphia, Conference Semifinals, 2-4

HONORS:

- Sidney Moncrief – NBA All-Star Team, All-NBA Second Team and NBA All-Defensive Team
- Bob Lanier – NBA All-Star Team
- Quinn Buckner – NBA All-Defensive Second Team

HIGHLIGHTS:

- A Sept. 29, 1984, trade netted Terry Cummings, Ricky Pierce and Craig Hodges in exchange for Marques Johnson, Junior Bridgeman, Harvey Catchings and cash.
- On Dec. 6, 1984, the Bucks retired #16 of center Bob Lanier.
- For the fifth straight campaign, the Bucks notched 50 victories, averaging 55 wins over that five-year span.
- Led by Sidney Moncrief and Paul Pressey, the Milwaukee defense led the league for the second time in a row, allowing only 104 ppg.
- The Bucks set a new club standard for home wins, recording a stellar 36-5 mark.
- Pressey tied the Bucks single playoff game mark with 16 assists vs. Philadelphia on April 30, 1985, and May 7, 1985.
- On March 1, 1985, the sale of the Milwaukee Bucks to Herb Kohl from Jim Fitzgerald was finalized. Four days later, Jane and Lloyd Pettit announced they would donate $30-40 million to build a new arena.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Beat Chicago, First Round, 3-1
- Lost to Philadelphia, Conference Semifinals, 0-4

HONORS:

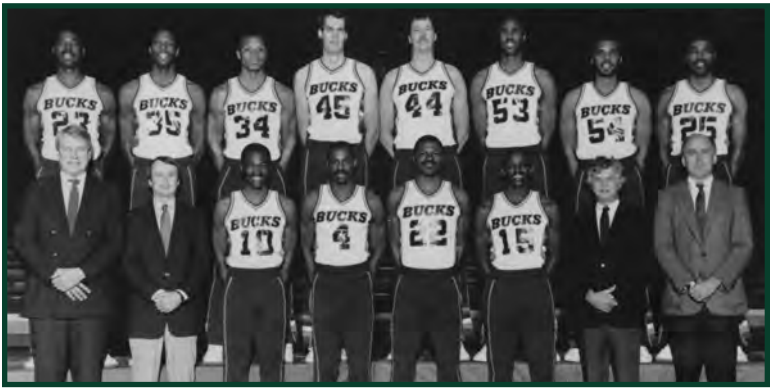

- Sidney Moncrief – NBA All-Star Team, NBA All-Defensive Team, and All-NBA Second Team
- Terry Cummings – NBA All-Star Team and All-NBA Second Team
- Paul Pressey – NBA All-Defensive Team
- Don Nelson – NBA Coach of the Year

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Bucks notched their seventh consecutive 50-win season, but the streak of seven straight division championships was snapped by Atlanta.
- The Bucks played .500+ basketball in every month, extending their streak to an incredible 50 months of .500 basketball.
- Milwaukee finished a perfect 24-0 when holding opponents under the century mark.
- Jack Sikma, acquired in a pre-season trade with Seattle, averaged 12.7 ppg and 10.0 rpg.
- The team set an all-time attendance mark averaging 11,000 fans in 41 dates, including 36 sellouts – only 2,145 seats went unsold for the season.
- The Bucks sent Julius Erving into retirement with a Game Five win in the first round vs. Philadelphia.
- After the season, Don Nelson resigned and, on June 4, 1987, was replaced by Del Harris.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Beat Philadelphia, First Round, 3-2
- Lost to Boston, Conference Semifinals, 3-4

HONORS:

- Ricky Pierce – NBA Sixth Man Award

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Prior to the season, the Bucks hosted the inaugural McDonald's Basketball Open, which also featured the Soviet National Basketball team and the reigning European champions, Tracer Milan of Italy.
- Milwaukee recorded its ninth straight winning season and 15th in the storied 20-year history.
- The Bucks finished the season with an awesome 992-648 (.605%) all-time record, bettered only by the Boston Celtics.
- The 1987-88 season saw the curtain close on an incredibly successful run in the Arena, as the Bucks prepared to move into the Bradley Center.
- On Dec. 4, 1987, the Bucks snapped Kareem Abdul-Jabbar's string of 787 double figure scoring games. Ironically, the last time Abdul-Jabbar failed to score in double digits was the first game of the 1977 season, also on the MECCA floor.
- Jack Sikma became the tallest man in NBA history to win the NBA free throw title by shooting 92.2% from the line.
- The Bucks string of 52 consecutive months of .500 or better basketball ended after a 6-9 record in January.
- Paul Pressey became the club's all-time leader in assists, topping Brian Winters on March 16, 1988.
- Junior Bridgeman was honored on Jan. 17, 1988, when his uniform (#2) was retired.
- In the final season at the Arena, the Bucks drew 452,057 fans to the Milwaukee Arena, including 38 of 41 sellouts.
- Milwaukee qualified for the playoffs for the ninth consecutive season and 16th time in 20 years.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Lost to Atlanta, First Round, 2-3

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Milwaukee became the top free throw shooting team in NBA history by shooting 82.073%, eclipsing the old standard of 82.054% set by Kansas City-Omaha in 1974-75 (since broken).
- The Bucks posted franchise win number 1,000 on Dec. 6, 1988, with a 109-84 win over Detroit.
- The Bucks topped 30 wins at home for the ninth straight year (31-10).
- The Bucks were the only team to not lose an overtime game in 1988-89 (2-0).
- Milwaukee qualified for the playoffs for the 10th straight year and 17th time in 21 seasons.
- Fred Roberts substituted for injured Terry Cummings and tallied a playoff career-high 33 points vs. Detroit.
- Paul Pressey did not play in the playoffs due to a dislocated right shoulder sustained late in the regular season.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Beat Atlanta, First Round, 3-2
- Lost to Detroit, Conference Semifinals, 0-4

HONORS:

- Terry Cummings – NBA All-Star Team

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Bucks clawed to a 48-34 mark to finish third in the Central and post their 12th consecutive winning season.
- Milwaukee entered the 1990-91 campaign as the winningest team in the history of the NBA, averaging 49.31 victories per season since joining the league in 1968-69.
- The season began with 18 straight Bradley Center victories by the Bucks, setting a franchise record for consecutive home wins within a season.
- The Bucks set a club record and topped the NBA for the second consecutive season in steals with 894 (the previous team-best for thefts in a season was 867 in 1977-78).
- The Bucks were .500 or better against each of the four divisions (Atlantic 17-7, Central 16-14, Midwest 7-7, Pacific 8-6).
- Milwaukee posted 16 victories in games it trailed at the half, a total which tied Portland for the league best.
- The Bucks made their 12th straight playoff appearance and 19th in the 23-year history of the franchise.
- For only the fifth time in 18 series, the Bucks lost a playoff series in which they held the homecourt advantage.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Lost to Philadelphia, First Round, 0-3

HONORS:

- Alvin Robertson – NBA All-Star Team and NBA All-Defensive First Team
- Ricky Pierce – NBA All-Star Team

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Bucks sixth-place finish in the Central was the lowest since the team moved into the division in 1980-81.
- On Dec. 4, 1991, with Milwaukee sporting an 8-9 record, Del Harris relinquished his head coaching duties to concentrate on the club's basketball operations. Frank Hamblen, his top assistant for the previous four seasons, was named head coach.
- Milwaukee led the NBA in steals (863) for the third straight season and ranked second in turnovers forced at 17.3 per game.
- The Bucks set a new single-game mark with 24 steals vs. Orlando on March 6, 1992.
- Milwaukee finished second in the league in 3-point field goal percentage at 36.9 (371-1,005).
- Dale Ellis led the triple attack as he set new individual club records with 138 3-pointers and 329 trey attempts (both records have been broken).
- Milwaukee grabbed a club record 1,297 offensive rebounds, breaking the old mark of 1,261 set in 1980-81.
- The Bucks exploded for 53 points in the fourth quarter of a game at Cleveland on Nov. 12, 1991, establishing a new club record for points in a quarter.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The 25th Anniversary Edition of the Milwaukee Bucks opened 1992-93 with seven new faces on their roster, representing the single largest turnover in club history (since broken).
- The "Young Bucks" were under the direction of Mike Dunleavy, Sr., named the team's head coach on May 12, 1992.
- The Bucks won 10 of their first 13 games but posted a record 18-51 mark over the final 69 games to finish at 28-54 overall.
- Milwaukee recorded a new club record for fewest turnovers in a game with five vs. Los Angeles Lakers on January 3, 1993 (since broken).
- An NBA record was set against the Bucks when Miami's Brian Shaw hit 10 three-pointers on April 8, 1993 in the Bradley Center.
- Milwaukee finished second in the NBA in steals with 863 (10.52 per game).
- The Bucks snapped a 14-game losing streak at the Boston Garden with a 115-109 win over the Celtics on March 12, 1993.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- With the first overall pick in the 1994 NBA Draft, the Bucks tabbed Glenn Robinson from Purdue. Robinson averaged 21.9 points per game, tops among all rookies, and led the Bucks in scoring.
- Milwaukee's 34-48 overall record represented a 14-victory improvement over the 20-62 mark of 1993-94, the third-best jump in the NBA behind only Dallas (+23) and the L.A. Lakers (+15).
- The Bucks suffered the biggest defeat in franchise history, a 152-104 loss to Orlando on Feb. 20, 1995.
- The Bucks topped the NBA for the second straight season in fewest games missed due to injury/illness with 10, the fewest in club history.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Did not qualify

HONORS:

- Vin Baker – NBA All-Star Team
- Glenn Robinson – NBA All-Rookie First Team

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Bucks suffered a franchise-record 15-game losing streak in March (3/4 - 3/30).
- For the third straight season, the Bucks led the NBA in fewest games missed due to injury/illness with 18.
- Vin Baker and Glenn Robinson scored 43.2 percent of the Bucks points on the season, ranking second in the NBA in 1995-96, behind only Jordan/Pippen (46.2%). They entered the books as the second-highest Bucks tandem ever (1971-72, Abdul-Jabbar and Dandridge, 45.7%).
- Against Utah on March 18, 1996, Lee Mayberry broke Junior Bridgeman's team record, appearing in his 309th straight game.
- The Bucks welcomed their 5,000,000th fan to the Bradley Center on February 13 vs. Philadelphia.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- On June 19, 1996, Chris Ford was hired to replace Mike Dunleavy as head coach. Dunleavy retained his title as Vice President of Basketball Operations for the season, then resigned on April 26, 1997.
- Milwaukee's 33-49 record marked an eight-victory improvement over 1995-96.
- Vin Baker (21.0 ppg) and Glenn Robinson (21.1 ppg) scored 42.5 percent of the team's total points. Baker and Robinson were also the NBA's only teammates to each average 21 points.
- Baker's 10.3 rebounds per game made him the first Bucks player to average 20 points and 10 rebounds for a season since Abdul-Jabbar in 1974-75.
- Rookie Ray Allen scored the franchise's 100,000th field goal on January 18 at Atlanta.
- Glenn Robinson became the Bucks first NBA Player of the Week in six years when he took the honor for the week of January 6-12.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- On Aug. 29, the Bucks hired George Karl to become the seventh head coach in Milwaukee Bucks history.
- A prolonged NBA lockout resulted in a 50-game season, beginning on Feb. 6, 1999.
- At the trade deadline on March 11, 1999, the Bucks acquired Sam Cassell and Chris Gatling from New Jersey and Paul Grant from Minnesota in a three-team deal. Milwaukee also received Tim Thomas and Scott Williams from Philadelphia in exchange for Tyrone Hill and Jerald Honeycutt.
- The Bucks finished the season with their best winning percentage (.560) since the 1990-91 season.
- George Karl moved into 20th place all-time in coaching victories (531) and had the best first-year finish of any head coach in the 31-year history of the franchise.
- The Bucks led the NBA in 3-point accuracy, as Dell Curry led the NBA with a career-high .476.
- Robert "Tractor" Traylor led all rookies in field goal percentage (.537).

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Lost to Indiana, First Round, 0-3

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Bucks hit 13 treys in a 137-87 win over Charlotte on Jan. 10, 2000. The win marked the fifth time in team history that the Bucks won by 50 or more.
- The Bucks compiled a 19-22 road record, their best since 1985-86.
- Milwaukee went a combined 6-0 vs. teams from the state of Texas.
- The Bucks boasted two All-Stars (Glenn Robinson, Ray Allen) for the first time since 1990-91.
- The Bucks trio of Allen, Robinson and Sam Cassell combined for 5,008 points, or 60.3 percent of the Bucks total. Only the Lakers trio of Bryant, O'Neal and Rice scored more.
- On Jan. 17, 2000, George Karl became the fastest Bucks coach to reach 50 wins (89 games).
- The Bucks 100-87 win vs. Indiana in Game 4 on May 1, 2000, came exactly 10 years after the Bucks last Bradley Center postseason win.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Lost to Indiana, First Round, 2-3

HONORS:

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Milwaukee captured its first Central Division crown since 1986, finishing with a 52-30 record, including 31-10 at the Bradley Center – the best home record in the Eastern Conference.
- Through November 26, only two other teams had worse records than the Bucks (3-9). From November 27 on, only San Antonio (49-20) was better than Milwaukee's 49-21 finish.
- The Bucks 116-111 win over Denver on January 31 was the 600th of George Karl's coaching career. He was only the 17th coach in NBA history to reach the milestone, and the sixth fastest coach to reach the 600 victory mark (1,005 games).
- On February 13, Glenn Robinson became the fifth player in Bucks history to score 10,000 points. He became the first member of his draft class or the preceding draft class to top the 10,000-point barrier.
- Ray Allen (202), Lindsey Hunter (152) and Tim Thomas (107) were the only trio of teammates in the NBA to make at least 100 3-pointers during the season. Allen's 202 were second-most in the NBA and broke his own franchise record for treys in one season (172). Allen and Thomas shared the franchise record for three-balls in a single game (8, since broken). Thomas hit 8-of-10 threes at Portland on January 5, setting an NBA record with eight 3-pointers in a half.
- Ray Allen broke the team record (329 – Lee Mayberry) for consecutive games played while at Vancouver on January 7. Allen had never missed a game to this point in his career (378) and held the NBA's consecutive games started streak at 366.
- Glenn Robinson (12/11-17) and Ray Allen (4/9-15) were each honored as NBA Players of the Week.
- The Bucks won a playoff series (Orlando) for the first time since 1989. The team made it to the Eastern Conference Finals for the first time since 1986.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Beat Orlando, First Round, 3-1
- Beat Charlotte, Conference Semifinals, 4-3
- Lost to Philadelphia, Conference Finals, 3-4

HONORS:

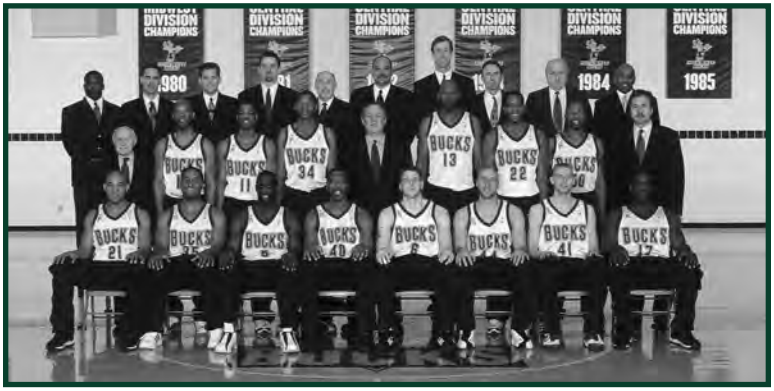

- Ray Allen – NBA All-Star Team, All-NBA Third Team
- Glenn Robinson – NBA All-Star Team

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Bucks finished one game shy of a berth in the NBA playoffs, with a 41-41 record. Despite the downturn, the Bucks did finish at .500 or better for the fourth consecutive season.
- A Bucks team that stayed relatively injury free for the last two seasons had no such luck this season. Among the team's top five scorers (Allen, Robinson, Cassell, Thomas, Redd), a total of 56 games were missed this season. That quintet appeared together in only 36 games (Bucks were 21-15). When one of the five missed a game, Milwaukee was a respectable 18-18, but when two or more were absent, the Bucks were 2-8. As a result of injuries and matchups, the Bucks fielded 17 different starting lineups this season.
- The Bucks set a franchise record with 16 treys in a 115-76 win over Houston on February 20. Milwaukee's 593 treys broke the all-time franchise record of 562, set the previous season.
- Despite missing 13 games to injury, halting his consecutive games played streak at 400 (12/21 at HOU), Ray Allen finished first in the league in 3-pointers made (229) and second in attempts (528). He broke his own franchise record for 3-pointers made in a season (202), and was 11th in NBA history in all-time 3-point accuracy, with 40.8 percent success rate (928-2,276). Allen hit a franchise record 10 treys (on 14 attempts) vs. Charlotte on 4/14.
- The Bucks 115-76 win over the Houston Rockets on February 20 seemed like just another game until the fourth quarter when Michael Redd scored 26 of his career-high 29 points. Redd hit eight treys in the fourth quarter to establish an NBA record for threes in a single period (and tied the NBA record for threes in a half).
- On the final day of the 2001-02 season, Glenn Robinson passed the 12,000-point mark for his career. On March 6 vs. L.A. Clippers, Robinson passed Sidney Moncrief (11,594) on Bucks all-time scoring list to trail only Kareem Abdul-Jabbar (14,211).
- The Bucks total home attendance (745,305) was the highest in team history. The average crowd of 18,178 exceeded the best previous average of 17,097, set in 1988-89. The 25 sellouts were the most during the Bradley Center era, breaking the previous record of 20 in 1988-89.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Bucks advanced to the postseason for the fourth time in five seasons under head coach George Karl, and for the 23rd time in their 35-year history.
- Milwaukee was one of the league's most prolific 3-point shooting teams, finishing fourth in makes (7.13) and fifth in attempts (18.61), while leading the league in 3-point percentage (.383). The Bucks tied a franchise record (since broken) with 16 treys in a 140-133 win at Cleveland on December 9. Milwaukee's 585 treys fell just short of the all-time franchise record of 593 (set during the 2001-02 season).
- Bucks sixth man Michael Redd emerged among the top 3-point shooters in NBA history. On March 30, he hit his 250th career 3-pointer to qualify as the fourth most accurate 3-point shooter in NBA history. Redd was second in the NBA in 3-point percentage (.438), third in 3-pointers made, and led the Bucks in accuracy for the second consecutive season. There were only seven games in the 2002-03 campaign in which Redd failed to deliver at least one 3-point field goal.
- Sam Cassell notched his first career triple-double in his 603rd regular season NBA game at Cleveland on December 9. Cassell tallied a season-high 39 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists for the Bucks first triple-double since Ray Allen's 20 points, 10 rebounds and 11 assists at Boston on Feb. 7, 2001. Cassell doubled his career triple-double total on January 22 with a 14-point, 11 rebound and season-high 16-assist performance at Boston. Cassell was one of six players in the league to tally multiple triple-doubles during the regular season.
- The Bucks were one of nine teams to increase their points-per-game production this season. Milwaukee raised its points-per-game average from 97.5 points in 2001-02 to 99.5.
- Milwaukee committed a franchise low 1,044 turnovers, bettering their previous low of 1,123 established in the 1999-00 season. The 12.7 turnovers per game were second in the NBA. In the Bucks 120-93 win over Atlanta, Milwaukee committed a franchise-low four turnovers, one shy of tying the NBA record for fewest turnovers in a game.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Bucks finished with a .500 or better record for the sixth consecutive season. It was the 24th .500 or better season in their 36-year history, and the team advanced to the postseason for the fifth time in the past six seasons.
- In his first season as an NBA Head Coach, Terry Porter led the Bucks to a 41-41 mark. He finished tied for third in Coach of the Year voting and was also a nominee for the J. Walter Kennedy Citizenship Award.
- Milwaukee led the Eastern Conference in scoring, averaging 98.0 points per game, good for 4th place in the NBA. The Bucks committed the fewest turnovers per game (13.54) in the Eastern Conference and were third in the league in that category.
- The Bucks went 33-21 against Eastern Conference opponents.
- Michael Redd, the runner-up for Sixth Man of the Year in 2002-03, started every game for the Bucks, averaging a team-high 21.7 points (10th in the NBA). Redd was voted by the coaches of the Eastern Conference to appear in his first All-Star Game where he scored 13 points on 5-12 shooting with three rebounds and three steals in 15 minutes.
- In January, Redd earned the Player of the Month award for the Eastern Conference after twice scoring a career-high 40 points.
- At the end of the season, several Bucks were nominated for awards: Redd was named to the NBA All-Third Team and finished fifth in voting for Most Improved Player. T.J. Ford was named to the All-Rookie Second Team. Desmond Mason finished sixth in Sixth Man of the Year voting.
- T.J. Ford suffered a spinal cord bruise in a February 24 game against Minnesota and missed the remainder of the season.
- Milwaukee shot 0-6 from3-point range at Phoenix in their 123-111 loss on March 20. It was the first time that the Bucks failed to make a 3-point basket since February 21, 2002, again vs. Phoenix in a 92-81 loss at the Bradley Center. It broke a streak of 191 straight games with a 3-pointer made for the Bucks.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Lost to Detroit, First Round, 1-4

HONORS:

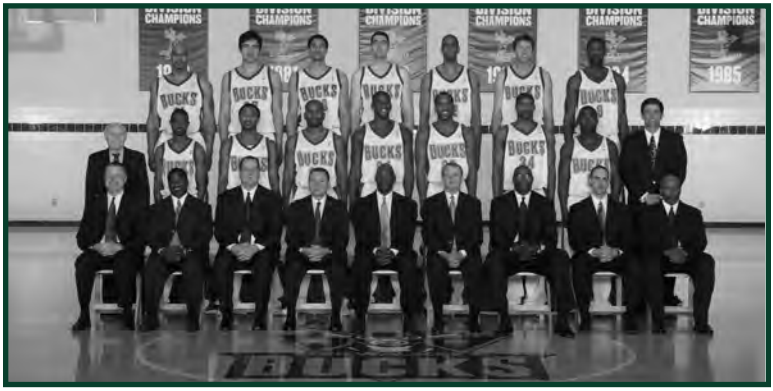

- Michael Redd – NBA All-Star team; All-NBA Third Team; NBA All-Interview team

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Bucks finished with a sub-.500 winning percentage for the first time since the 1998-99 season (30-52), but they did have their eighth consecutive winning season at home (23-18).
- Michael Redd maintained a career-high scoring average of 23.0 points per game (11th in the NBA).
- Redd also became just the second player in team history to lead the Bucks in scoring 50 or more times in one season (he did it 50 times). Kareem Abdul-Jabbar was the other.
- Redd scored his 5,000th career point on March 4 and connected on his 500th career 3-pointer on April 13.
- 15 separate players missed games due to injury, illness or suspension. T.J. Ford missed the entire season while recovering from neck surgery and Redd saw a string of 212 consecutive games played snapped due to a sprained left index finger. In all, 247 games were missed.
- The Bucks and Golden State Warriors tied an NBA-low for combined turnovers in a game with 11 (Milwaukee had six and Golden State had five) on March 30.
- The Bucks held Seattle to 73 points on 29.4 percent shooting on February 27. The 73 points were tied for 10th for an opponent-low in Bucks history (only 13 times in their history has a team been held to 73 points or less).
- The Bucks scored 78 first-half points on February 8 against Boston, including 42 second-quarter points, on their way to a 121-97 win. The 78 points were the most by the Bucks in a single half since the team scored the same amount on March 24, 1987 against New York.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Bucks finished the season 40-42 and advanced to the NBA playoffs for the 25th time in their 38-year history and for the sixth time in the last eight seasons.
- Milwaukee improved 10 games from their 30-52 record in 2004-05.
- In advancing to the playoffs, the Bucks became the first team in NBA history to make the playoffs with four new starters from the previous season.
- Michael Redd led the Bucks in scoring 63 times. He finished the season with 2,028 points, becoming just the second player in franchise history to break the 2,000-point mark in a single season.
- Redd also maintained a 25.4 scoring average (9th in the NBA), not just a career-high, but also the highest for a Buck since Marques Johnson averaged 25.6 points during the 1978-79 season.
- The Bucks set an NBA record by winning their first 13 games decided by six points or less (they were also 9-0 in games decided by three points or less). They became the first team in the shot clock era (since 1954-55) to win their first 12 games decided by six points or less (12-0) when they beat Minnesota 95-92 on January 10, topping the previous record of 11 set by both the 1967-68 St. Louis Hawks and the 1959-60 Boston Celtics.
- Milwaukee finished the season fourth in the league in 3FG% (.380), the second-best season mark in team history (behind only the 2002-03 squad's 38.3%). Charlie Bell finished the year 11th in the NBA in 3FG% (.423) and teammate Bobby Simmons finished T-12th (.420).
- Andrew Bogut had a fine rookie season, earning a spot on the All-Rookie First Team after averaging 9.4 points, 7.0 rebounds and 2.3 assists in 28.6 minutes per game. He was named the Eastern Conference's Rookie of the Month for January and appeared in the T-Mobile Rookie Challenge Game at All-Star Weekend (along with teammate T.J. Ford).
- Milwaukee set a new NBA record for fewest turnovers in a game on April 1 against Indiana. Their two miscues (since tied) beat out the old mark of three (set by seven teams). Milwaukee's previous franchise record for fewest turnovers in a game was four.
- The Bucks hit a franchise-record 18 three-pointers in their 132-110 rout of the Phoenix Suns at the Bradley Center on March 28. The 18 treys topped the previous franchise mark of 16. They also set a new NBA record after hitting 11 of those 18 triples in the third quarter.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Lost to Detroit, First Round, 1-4

HONORS:

- Andrew Bogut - NBA All-Rookie First Team; T-Mobile Rookie/Sophomore Challenge at All-Star Weekend
- T.J. Ford - T-Mobile Rookie/Sophomore Challenge at All-Star Weekend

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Bucks final record of 28-54 included an 18-23 record at the Bradley Center and a 10-31 record on the road. The season marks the first time the Bucks lost 23 games at home since 1995-96 (14-27). Their 54 losses were the most by a Bucks team since the 1995-96 team went 25-57.
- In total, Bucks players missed 234 games (third most in the NBA behind Boston & Portland) due to injury or illness. All five players in Milwaukee's projected opening day starting line-up missed at least 13 games or more due to injury. Milwaukee's injury/illness total was up from the 109 games missed in 2005-06.
- Michael Redd's 1,416 points over 53 games averaged to 26.7 points per game (5th in the NBA) and was also the highest for a Buck since Kareem Abdul-Jabbar averaged 30.0 points (1974-75). Redd also set a career high and broke a franchise record with 57 points against Utah (11/11), the previous record was 55 by Kareem Abdul-Jabbar (12/10/71). Redd also scored 52 on March 4 against the Bulls. After the 2006-07 season, Redd moved into 10th place on the Bucks all-time scoring list with 8,964 points.
- Mo Williams averaged career-highs in points (17.3), rebounds (4.8) and assists (6.1, 14th in NBA). He also became the first Buck to average at least 17.0 points and 6.0 assists in 50 games or more since Sam Cassell did it during the 2002-03 season.
- Milwaukee finished 11-6 in December and averaged 107.6 points per game to their opponents' 98.9. The team shot 48.9% from the field to their opponents' 46.4% and grabbed 40.1 rebounds to their opponents' 36.7. Milwaukee's 7-0 mark at home during the month was their longest home winning streak since the 2003-04 season (10 games). Michael Redd and Mo Williams both received Eastern Conference Player of the Week honors in December. Redd won twice (for the week of 11/23 - 12/3 and again for the week of 12/25 - 1/1) while Williams earned his honor for the week of 12/18 - 12/24.
- Charlie Bell was the only Buck to play in every game. He appeared in all 82 contests and started 64 of them.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Milwaukee was just below .500 at home (19-22) and finished the year 7-34 on the road. With their 28 wins in the 2006-07 season, the Bucks won 29 or fewer games in consecutive seasons for the first time since 1992-93 (28) and 1993-94 (20). Their 56 losses were their most since the 1995-96 team went 25-57.
- Milwaukee put together a five-game winning-streak, the longest of the season, from November 14-24. After defeating Dallas 97-95 on November 24, the club was a season-best three games over .500 at 7-4. In those five games they defeated Memphis, Atlanta, (at) Cleveland, L. A. Lakers and Dallas.
- Rookie guard Ramon Sessions broke a nearly 40-year-old record: his 24 assists against Chicago on April 14 surpassed Guy Rodgers' record of 21 set Oct. 31, 1968. Sessions also became the first player in franchise history to record 20 or more points and 20 or more assists in the same contest as he finished with 20 points and 24 assists.
- Andrew Bogut averaged career-highs in points (14.3), rebounds (9.8) and blocks (1.7). He also had 38 double-doubles in 2007-08 comapred to 31 in his first two NBA campaigns combined.
- The Bucks had three players who finished the season in the top-25 league leaders: Bogut was 9th in blocks (1.7), tied for 12th in rebounds (9.8) and 21st in field goal percentage (.511). Redd was 8th in points per game (22.7) and 24th in minutes (37.5). Williams finished in 14th in assists (6.3) and 18th in free throw percentage (.856).
- Milwaukee's rookie Yi Jianlian was the Eastern Conference Rookie of the Month for December after averaging 12.1 points, 6.6 rebounds, 1.2 assists and 1.1 blocks. Fellow rookie Ramon Sessions was the the Eastern Conference's Rookie of the Month for April with 11.5 points, 11.3 assists and 5.6 rebounds in 17 games (11 starts).
- Michael Redd appeared in his 500th career game this season and ranked in the top-10 in Bucks franchise history in the following categories: 10,596 points (6th), 20.5 scoring average (5th), 3,721 field goals (9th), 2,243 free throws (3rd), 911 three-pointers (2nd), 84.5 free throw percentage (7th), 38.7 three-point field goal percentage (7th), 517 games (9th) and 17,505 minutes (9th).
- Mo Williams was second on the team with 89 three-pointers and Charlie Bell was third with 74. Williams then had 273 makes in a Bucks uniform (5th at the time) while Bell had 272 (6th at the time).
- Michael Redd led the club in scoring for the fifth consecutive season. The only other player to lead the club in scoring for as many as five seasons was Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, who did it six times.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Bucks finished 2008-09 with an eight-game improvement from their 2007-08 record of 26-56. That improvement was tied for the fifth-largest in the NBA in 2008-09. Milwaukee boosted their home win total from the previous season to 22 from 19 and nearly doubled their road win total with 12 from the seven they had in the previous season.

- Milwaukee's defensive numbers improved in points allowed 100.4, 16th in the NBA (103.9, 23rd in 2007-08), field goal percentage 45.8, 16th (48.0, 29th), 3-point percentage 37.8, 23rd (38.4, 21st), steals 7.4, 12th (6.6, 21st), opponent turnovers 16.5, 1st (13.7, 15th) and opponents assist:turnover ratio 1.28:1 (1.70:1).

- Milwaukee tied for the most back-to-backs with 22. The team had eight sets before the calendar shifted to December, a league-high with the next closest teams at six. The Bucks also had a stretch beginning on November 7 where they played their next 10 games as part of back-to-backs (five sets). The last time that happened was 2004-05 when Detroit played seven sets. It hadn't happened to the Bucks since January/February of 1996.

-The Bucks fell one game shy of an odd NBA occurrence that hasn't happened in more than 10 seasons. Starting with a loss to Detroit on December 27 and ending on January 17 at the L.A. Clippers, the club alternated wins and losses for 13 consecutive games, the longest such streak in the team's history. Milwaukee's longest streak of alternating wins and losses was eight games between January and February of 1973. The New York Knicks were the last team to top Milwaukee's mark of 13 games alternating wins and losses, going back-and-forth 14 times in December and January in the 1997-98 season. *Note, although the Bucks won on December 23, that game was included as part of a three-game winning string and doesn't count toward the streak.

- Eight players missed a total of 138 games due to injury/illness. The team's leading scorer for the last five seasons, Michael Redd, missed 49 games. Redd was out 14 games in November with a right ankle sprain and suffered an ACL/MCL tear against Sacramento on January 24, missing the remainder of the season (35 games). Andrew Bogut, the team's leading rebounder the previous two seasons, missed a total of 46 games: three in November with a bone bruise in his left knee and then 43 from early January through the remainder of the season due to a lower back injury.

- The team's main four starters entering the year - Andrew Bogut, Richard Jefferson, Michael Redd and Luke Ridnour played a total of 20 games together and were 11-9. In 36 games with Bogut, they allowed 97.6 points and opponents shot 44.7 percent. Without him those numbers became 104.0 points and 46.9 percent. With Redd in the fold for 33 tilts, Milwaukee averaged 99.4 points while shooting 45.8 percent from the floor. When Redd was out, those numbers became 99.2 points and 43.7 percent.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Bucks reached the playoffs for the 26th time in team history. Milwaukee's 46-36 record was a 12-game improvement from its 2008-09 record and a 20-game improvement from the 2007-08 season.
- Rookie Brandon Jennings poured in 55 points on 21-34 from the field, including 7-8 from three and 6-8 from the free throw line, in the Bucks 129-125 win over Golden State on Nov. 14. The 55-point tally was the most by any NBA player in 2009-10 and Jennings became the fastest (seventh game, edging out Wild Chamberlain in eight games) and the youngest (20 years and 52 days) player to top 50 points in a game (LeBron James previously held the record at 20 years and 80 days). His scoring outburst was also the most points by a Bucks rookie (Kareem Abdul-Jabbar had 51 on Feb. 21, 1970) and two shy of Michael Redd's franchise record of 57 (Nov. 11, 2006).
- Center Andrew Bogut swatted away a career-best 175 shots in 69 games (2.5 per game, second in the NBA) after blocking 275 in the first 262 games of his career. He blocked a shot in a franchise record 39-consecutive games, which was the longest streak in the NBA for 2009-10 and the longest since Marcus Camby's 51-game streak in 2007-08. Bogut entered the season outside of the franchise's top-10 block list and is currently in sixth place with 450 career blocks.
- The Bucks set a franchise record with 645 three-pointers made, surpassing the previous best of 593 set in the 2001-02 season. Milwaukee finished the season with a 35.6 three-point percentage (eighth in NBA) and their 7.9 makes per game ranked them sixth in the league. Brandon Jennings (145 makes, a franchise rookie record) and Carlos Delfino (134, career-high) combined for 279 threes, the most by any Bucks duo since Michael Redd (182) and Ray Allen (123) combined for 305 in 2002-03.
- Milwaukee went 23-7 over a 30-game stretch where they didn't lose consecutive games (beginning with the first win following the consecutive losses and ending with the last win). Included in that stretch were two six-game winning streaks and the Bucks were 12-1 during one stretch and extended that to 15-2.
- John Salmons was acquired by Milwaukee at the trade deadline and the Bucks went 22-8 in his 30 regular season games with the team. He averaged 19.9 points on 46.7 percent shooting and 38.5 percent from three while with the Bucks.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Lost to Atlanta, First Round, 3-4

HONORS:

- Andrew Bogut - All-NBA Third Team
- Brandon Jennings - NBA All-Rookie First Team, T-Mobile Rookie/ Sophomore Challenge at All-Star Weekend, Skills Challenge

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Bucks finished just two games out of the final playoffs spot in the Eastern Conference. Milwaukee posted a winning record at home for the third consecutive season and for the 12th time in the last 14 seasons.
- The Bucks set franchise records by holding 62 opponents under 100 points (second in the NBA) and 30 under 90 points (fourth in the NBA). From March 16 through April 6 they held a season-best 12 consecutive teams under 100 points (including five under 90). That string was tied for the fourth-longest in team history and is the longest since they went 13 games from January 27 through February 22 in 2006 (franchise record is 16 games in early 1999).
- Andrew Bogut led the league in blocks with a career-high 2.6 per game. Thanks to 168 blocks this season (seventh for a single season in franchise history), Bogut moved from sixth to third place in franchise history with 618 career blocks. Over the course of the year, he passed Randy Breuer (474 blocks, 5th), Kareem Abdul-Jabbar (495, 4th) and Ervin Johnson (586, 3rd). With those 618 career blocks, the Aussie big man joins Alton Lister (804) and Harvey Catchings (710) as the only three players in Bucks history with 600 or more blocks.
- Bucks opponents scored just 92.7 points per game, which was the second-fewest in team history (90.0 in the shortened 98-99 season) and the fewest for a full 82-game season.
- The Bucks blocked 399 shots, their most since the 1993-94 season (407 blocks). Andrew Bogut (168) and Larry Sanders (72) accounted for 240 (60.2 percent) swats. Larry Sanders' 72 blocks were fifth in team history for a rookie (just behind Anthony Avent's 73 in 1992-93) and his eight blocks on December 1 were tied for the second-most in the NBA this season. The last Bucks player to block eight shots was Ervin Johnson on April 7, 1998. Sanders' 4.0 blocks per 48 minutes ranked him fourth in the NBA among players who appeared in at least 60 games.
- The Bucks were hit harder than any other NBA club by injuries, as they lost a total of 275 games to injury/illness this season. Fourteen different players missed time due to injury and no player appeared in all of the team's 82 games. This was the first time since 2007-08 that the Bucks didn't have at least one player reach 82 games. Michael Redd led the club with 71 games missed due to an ACL/MCL tear in his left knee suffered in January of 2010. Drew Gooden missed 41 games with left foot plantar fasciitis, Carlos Delfino missed 33 games total, 32 with a neck strain/concussion-like symptoms, while Ersan Ilyasova (22 games), Brandon Jennings (19) and Andrew Bogut (17) all missed extended time.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Milwaukee completed the lockout-shortened season with a winning record at home for the third consecutive year and 13th time in the last 14 seasons. Despite finishing four games out of the eighth seed in the East, the Bucks remained in the postseason hunt until three days before the season ended, when a victory for the Philadelphia 76ers clinched their playoff spot.
- The Bucks tallied 100+ points in 33 games, the first time they had scored over 100 in 30+ games since the 2008-09 season when they did so 36 times. Milwaukee posted a 25-8 record over the 33 games in which they cracked the century mark.
- Milwaukee ranked third in the NBA with 23.48 assists per game and led the league in games with 30 or more assists with 13, five more than the next highest team (Chicago). The Bucks went 12-1 in those games. Additionally, Milwaukee held the spot for the highest single-game total of assists in the NBA during 2011-12 with 38 in a 115-105 win at Cleveland on March 14.
- Forward Ersan Ilyasova had a breakout season, posting career highs in scoring (13.0 ppg), rebounding (8.8 rpg), FG% (.492), 3P% (.455), 20-point games (11) and double-doubles (20) while playing just 27.6 minutes per game. He became the first player to average 12 points and eight rebounds in under 28 minutes since Arvydas Sabonis (14.5 ppg, 8.1 rpg and 23.8 minutes) did so during the 1995-96 season.
- Both Larry Sanders and Ekpe Udoh ranked at the top of the league for reserve players with multi-block games. Udoh was first with 26, and Sanders finished the season close behind at third with 23. The duo ranked No. 1 and 2 in the NBA for reserve players with three-block games - Udoh had 14 and Sanders had 12. Udoh also finished the season ranked 11th in the league for blocks per game with 1.67.
- The Bucks bench ranked near the top of the NBA when looking at stats recorded by hoopstats.com. Milwaukee's reserves averaged 33.8 ppg (9th in NBA), 17.5 rpg (5th), 8.4 apg (T-3rd) and 2.6 bpg (T-3rd). Additionally, the Bucks bench scored an average of 5.2 more points per game than their opponent's bench, good for 5th in the NBA.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Bucks compiled a 38-44 mark for the season and earned the eighth seed in the Eastern Conference playoff race, giving Milwaukee its 27th postseason berth in franchise history. Milwaukee's 21-20 mark at the BMO Harris Bradley Center marked the fifth consecutive season in which the Bucks had a winning record at home (and 14th time in the last 16 years overall).
- Both Brandon Jennings and Monta Ellis were named Eastern Conference Player of the Week twice during the season. The four total honors for the Bucks trailed only the Heat (7), Knicks (5) and Thunder (5) for most in the league during the 2012-13 campaign.
- Larry Sanders finished the 2012-13 campaign with 201 total blocks – the fourth-highest total in franchise history and the first 200-block campaign by a Buck since Elmore Smith had 238 in 1975-76. With Sanders leading the way, the Bucks piled up 550 blocks as a team, surpassing the previous franchise record of 532 set during the 1982-83 season.
- Four Bucks players combined to notch 21 30-point games for Milwaukee: Brandon Jennings (10), Monta Ellis (9), Samuel Dalembert (1) and Ersan Ilyasova (1). That number was the most for a Bucks squad since 2006-07, when four players – Michael Redd (12), Mo Williams (6), Earl Boykins (4) and Ruben Patterson (1) – combined for 27 such games.
- On Nov. 30, Larry Sanders posted the first triple-double of his career by notching 10 points, 12 rebounds and 10 blocked shots at Minnesota. The 10 blocks tied Kareem Abdul-Jabbar's single-game Bucks franchise record.
- The Bucks earned their first win in Phoenix since the 1986-87 season with a 98-94 victory on Jan. 17, snapping a skid of 24 consecutive road losses to the Suns.

PLAYOFF RECORD:

- Lost to Miami in the First Round, 0-4

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Milwaukee's 15 wins, 10 home wins and five road wins were all franchise lows as the Bucks struggled through an injury-plagued season.
- The Bucks lost 277 player games due to injury or illness during the season, with the projected Opening Night starting lineup failing to log a single minute of court time together.
- Players aged 26 or under logged nearly 75 percent of the available minutes for the Bucks on the season.
- Ramon Sessions, acquired by the Bucks midseason in a trade with Charlotte, appeared in 83 total games for the season. Sessions became just the 40th player in NBA history to appear in more than 82 games, and the first to accomplish the feat since Jarrett Jack logged 83 games in 2010-11.
- John Henson recorded multiple streaks of 15+ games with at least one blocked shot during the season. His 21-game run with at least one block from Dec. 13 through Feb. 22 was the fourth-longest in the league for the season.
- Brandon Knight led the Bucks in both total points and total assists for the season, joining Brandon Jennings as the only players in franchise history to lead the team in both categories during their inaugural seasons with the franchise.
- Giannis Antetokounmpo appeared in both the BBVA Compass Rising Stars Challenge and Taco Bell Skills Challenge during NBA All-Star Weekend in New Orleans. The 19-year-old also became the youngest Buck ever to start a game for Milwaukee when he earned his first starting nod on Dec. 18 vs. New York.

JIM PASCHKE

BROADCAST DIRECTOR/TV PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Jim Paschke enters his 43rd year in the broadcasting industry, with the 2015-16 season marking his 30th as the television "Voice of the Bucks" and 20th as the team's Broadcast Director. Paschke works year-round on the telecasts, television projects and other team broadcast ventures, and regularly contributes both video and written content on the Bucks website with his "Paschketball" features. Jim is also a featured speaker in the community, addressing various civic groups and school assemblies throughout the year, and is a long-time supporter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

A native of Bloomington, Minn., he attended the University of Minnesota and Brown College in Minneapolis. He began his broadcasting career in radio in Knoxville, Iowa, and moved to television in Sioux City, Iowa. Paschke served as sports director at WMTV-TV15 in Madison, Wis., for three years and doubled as an analyst for University of Wisconsin football and basketball games.

He originally came to Milwaukee in 1980 and later served as sports director at WITI-TV6. From 1987-91 and 1995-96, baseball fans enjoyed hearing Jim as the television voice of the Milwaukee Brewers. He has also handled play-by-play duties for Marquette University basketball, Milwaukee Admirals (IHL) hockey and auto races at Wisconsin State Fair Park. Paschke returned to WITI-TV in 1992 to serve as moderator of the station's popular "Talking Sports" program, which earned an Emmy Award in 1993. In 2007 and 2009, Jim handled play-by-play duties for the NCAA Division III Baseball Championships, and in 2011 he called the action for FOX Sports Wisconsin's coverage of the WIAA State Football Championships.

On Oct. 6, 2007, Jim became a member of the Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Hall of Fame as "a Friend of Basketball," and in October of 2013 was inducted into the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences prestigious Silver Circle, an honor for outstanding individuals who have devoted 25 years or more to the local television industry. In Octobe of 2014, Paschke was inducted into the Milwaukee Press Club's Milwaukee Media Hall of Fame. He also serves as an honorary MACC Fund board member, and together with Jon McGlocklin has won three regional Emmy Awards for his work on Bucks broadcasts.

Jim lives in St. Francis. His son, Michael, is an avid Bucks fan.

JON McGLOCKLIN

TV ANALYST

Known as the "Original Buck," Jon McGlocklin has been associated with the Bucks organization since the inception of the franchise in 1968. The 2015-16 season marks his 40th as analyst for Bucks TV games, and his 30th paired in the broadcast booth with Jim Paschke. The duo are three-time Wisconsin Emmy Award winners for their work on Bucks telecasts.

McGlocklin averaged 19.6 ppg in the Bucks inaugural season of 1968-69 and went on to play eight years in a Milwaukee uniform. His name appears in five categories on the Bucks all-time career leaders list. Named to the 1969 Eastern Division All-Star team, "Jonny Mac" was a starting guard on the Bucks 1971 World Championship team. For his many on-court contributions to the franchise, his number 14 jersey was retired in 1976 and currently hangs from the rafters inside the BMO Harris Bradley Center.

Following his retirement from basketball in 1976, McGlocklin joined the Bucks front office and, together with former Bucks broadcaster Eddie Doucette, founded the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer (MACC) Fund. Serving as president, the fund financed construction of the MACC Fund Research Center at the Medical College of Wisconsin and has contributed more than $50 million to the fight against childhood cancer. In June, 2004, after spending 18 years as a trustee, he was named trustee emeritus for the Medical College of Wisconsin. McGlocklin is on the State Board of Directors for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Jon and his wife, Pam, reside in Hartland, along with their son, Shannon, his wife, Colleen, and granddaughters, Kayleigh and Alannah. Their daughter, Meghan, her husband, Matt, and granddaughters, Keegan and Quinn, reside in Delafield.

GUS JOHNSON

TV PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Gus Johnson begins his first season with Milwaukee's broadcast team as a TV play-by-play analyst on FOX Sports Wisconsin. Johnson most recently held the role of lead play-by-play announcer for FOX Sports' college football and college basketball coverage. He served as FOX Sports' lead college football play-by-play voice since 2011, and has been part of the network's basketball coverage since 2013, the first year FOX Sports began carrying national college basketball games.

Prior to joining FOX Sports, Johnson was one of CBS's top play-by-play voices for the network's college basketball coverage from 1996 to 2011. Clips of his dramatic, enthusiastic calls in the deciding moments of NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament games became part of the fabric of the event and were the foundation of Johnson's rise as a YouTube sensation.

While at CBS, he also did play-by-play for NFL games, college football, track and field, boxing, the Hambletonian and both the bobsled and luge events at the 1998 Olympic Winter Games in Nagano, Japan. In 2009, he was named play-by-play announcer for Showtime Championship Boxing and was also the announcer for CBS EliteXC Saturday Night Fights. In conjunction with his work at CBS, Johnson held a position with the Madison Square Garden Network from 1994-2010 as the lead radio play-by-play announcer for the NBA's New York Knicks. Johnson also appeared in spot duty on the Knicks' TV broadcasts and was the face of MSG's TV coverage of the WNBA's New York Liberty. While with the network, he also anchored the AT&T Yankees Scorecard and hosted the Knicks and New York Rangers' GameNight programs.

MARQUES JOHNSON

TV ANALYST

Milwaukee legend Marques Johnson enters his first season as an analyst for Bucks telecasts on FOX Sports Wisconsin in 2015-16.

The third overall pick by Milwaukee in the 1977 NBA Draft, Johnson played seven seasons for the Bucks (1977-84), where he was a four-time All-Star and three-time All-NBA team honoree. During his time with the Bucks, Johnson helped lead the team to the playoffs six times, including two Eastern Conference Finals appearances. Johnson averaged 21.0 points per game in Milwaukee, the fourth-best mark in franchise history, and also ranks among the franchise's all-time leaders in nearly every statistical category.

Following his playing career, Johnson served as an analyst on Seattle SuperSonics broadcasts in the late '1990's, as lead college basketball analyst at FOX Sports for 15 years, as studio analyst for the Lakers and Clippers broadcasts, and most recently hosted a morning sports show on Clippers' flagship radio station in Los Angeles.

A native of Louisiana, Johnson played collegiately at UCLA and won a national championship in 1975. As a senior in 1976-77, he was named the NCAA's Associated Press Player of the Year, Naismith Men's College Player of the Year and also earned the John R. Wooden Award. UCLA retired Johnson's jersey number, 54, in 1996.

TED DAVIS

RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Ted Davis enters his 43rd year in broadcasting, with the 2015-16 campaign marking his 19th season as the radio "Voice of the Bucks." He came to Milwaukee following nine seasons calling the action for the Dallas Mavericks. During the 2004-05 campaign, Davis received the Milwaukee Achievement In Radio (AIR) award as the best play-by-play broadcaster for the second time in his career. He won the award in 1998-99 as well. He also earned the KATIE Award - the most prestigious award in Texas for excellence in writing or broadcast journalism - for his work as play-by-play broadcaster on KLIF-AM for the Dallas Mavericks during the 1996-97 season.

A native of Lubbock, Texas, Davis began his radio career at the age of 17 when he was hired by KDNT in Denton, Texas. He spent 10 years (1978-88) on the sports staff at KVIL in Dallas-Fort Worth, and called Texas Christian University and Texas A&M games for the Southwest Conference radio network from 1982-86. He has also covered the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament for CBS Radio from 1986-88 and the NCAA Women's Final Four in 1986 and 1987. Davis has also held announcing positions with KLIF-AM and WBAP-AM in Dallas-Fort Worth, the Mutual Broadcasting System and North Texas State University (men's basketball and football).

Ted and his wife, Debbie, also a native Texan, reside in Menomonee Falls.

DENNIS KRAUSE

RADIO ANALYST

Dennis Krause enters his 20th season as the radio color analyst for Bucks home games. He first joined the Bucks Radio Network in 1995 as the fill-in play-by-play voice.

Krause is a five-time Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year, most recently for 2012. Dennis is the host of the daily "Roundtable" show and the interview program "The Dennis Krause Show" on Time Warner Cable SportsChannel, based in Milwaukee and seen in 200 communities in Wisconsin.

Krause is a native of Hartford, Wis., and a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh. He worked from 1984-87 at WMBD Radio and TV in Peoria, Ill., and from 1987-2003 at WTMJ-TV in Milwaukee, where he served as sports director and won a Midwest Emmy award.

In addition to his Bucks duties, Krause is the host of the pre-game show, "Packers Preview," on the Green Bay Packers Radio Network. Dennis lives in Thiensville with his wife, Julie. They have two children, Melissa and Zac.

During the 2014-15 season, the Milwaukee Bucks family lost several members who contributed to the rich history and tradition of the organization. The Milwaukee Bucks honor their contributions to the franchise and remember their commitment and dedication to Bucks basketball.

STEVE HAYWOOD

Steve Haywood was a fixture in the Milwaukee sports radio scene since the late 1990s and was one of the most respected local media members with his distinguished voice and trademark sense of humor. Haywood had extreme passion and enthusiasm for the city of Milwaukee and his beloved Bucks.

A graduate of Milwaukee Tech High School and the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, Haywood hosted ESPN radio shows "That Being Said," and "The Game" in addition to working a number of high school football and basketball games, the MLB All-Star Game in 2002 and the NBA All-Star Game in 2003.

Haywood created a partnership between ESPN Milwaukee and the Milwaukee Public Schools, which brought attention and advocated for student athletes throughout the city.

JEROME KERSEY

Jerome Kersey played his final season in Milwaukee during his 17-year NBA career. During his time with the Bucks in 2000-01, Kersey appeared in 22 games and averaged 3.3 points and 2.0 rebounds.

The 6-7 forward was drafted by Portland with the 46th pick in the 1995 NBA Draft and spent 11 seasons with the Trail Blazers, posting averages of 12.1 points, 6.1 rebounds and 2.1 assists. Kersey won an NBA Championship in 1999 as a member of the San Antonio Spurs and also spent time with the Golden State Warriors, Los Angeles Lakers and Seattle SuperSonics.

MOSES MALONE

Hall of Famer and three-time MVP Moses Malone is known as one of the most dominant centers in the history of professional basketball. Malone started his NBA career in 1976-77 with the Buffalo Braves and played a crucial role on several teams in the NBA, including the Houston Rockets, Philadelphia 76ers, Washington Bullets, Atlanta Hawks, Milwaukee Bucks and San Antonio Spurs.

The 6-10 center played 93 games (77 starts) in two seasons for the Bucks, producing averages of 14.3 points, 8.5 rebounds and 1.1 assists per game.

The Petersburg, Va. native was the NBA Finals MVP in 1983 as he led the Philadelphia 76ers to the title. Malone, who averaged a double-double (20.6 points, 12.2 rebounds) throughout his career, was named one of the NBA's 50 greatest players and appeared in 12 All-Star games.

MARC MAROTTA

Marc Marotta was a well-known Milwaukee attorney and community leader with a generous heart and amazing spirit. Marotta served as chairman of the board of the BMO Harris Bradley Center as well as on the boards of Summerfest (Milwaukee World Festival) and the Boys and Girls Club of Greater Milwaukee. Marotta was extremely dedicated to his community and spent a majority of his time giving back and helping provide enrichment opportunities.

Marotta was a 1984 graduate of Marquette University, where he studied economics, political science and English. A three-time academic All-American basketball player at MU, Marotta continued his studies at Harvard Law School where he graduated in 1987.

ANTHONY MASON

Anthony Mason was a rugged power forward known for his defensive prowess. Mason played for the Bucks for the final two seasons of his 13-year NBA career, appearing in 147 regular season games and posting averages of 8.5 points, 7.2 rebounds and 3.8 assists in 35.8 minutes per game.

Originally selected by the Portland in the third round of the 1988 NBA Draft with the 53rd overall pick, but never played for the Trail Blazers. Mason spent time with the New Jersey Nets, Denver Nuggets, New York Knicks, Charlotte Hornets and Miami Heat.

Mason won the NBA's Sixth Man Award in 1995 while playing for the New York Knicks and earned all-defensive team honors with the Charlotte Hornets in 1997. Mason was also named an NBA All-Star in 2001.

DON WALKER

Don Walker was a true professional in every sense of the word. Throughout a nearly four-decade career at The Milwaukee Journal and the Journal Sentinel, Walker expertly covered everything from sports to business to politics, always doing so with integrity, fairness and clarity.

An alumnus of both Marquette and the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Walker began his career at the Eau Claire Leader-Telegram before returning to Milwaukee in 1978. The Detroit native did it all for the Journal Sentinel, serving stints as editor on the state, metro and national desk while also spending time as a reporter. His final beat with the paper was covering the Bucks' drive to develop a new sports and entertainment district in Milwaukee, a role he dedicated himself to despite being semi-retired at the time.
